

circle

Supporting families in Scotland

HARBOUR PROJECT

Support for children, young people & families affected by parental substance use in Edinburgh.

Family Outreach Service

In partnership with Sunflower Garden, we offer whole family support around a range of issues, including routines & boundaries, behaviour management and engagement with other services, as well as providing direct support to children and young people within the family. Offers a mix of one to one support and group support for the whole family.

For more information or to discuss referrals, contact:

Contact: julie.king@circle.scot mobile: 07984 022908

Young Person's Service

Support for young people who are using/at risk of using substances, in the North West of the city. This service is delivered through 1:1 support in school or the community.

For more information or to discuss referrals, contact:

Contact: coral.donaldson@circle.scot mobile: 07703 321425

Fathers' Service

Dedicated Family Outreach Service which offers support for fathers affected by substance use (of either parent). This support is offered on a one to one basis and also via group support.

For more information or to discuss referrals, contact:

Contact: cheryl.collins@circle.scot mobile: 07921 700539

Family Inclusion Service

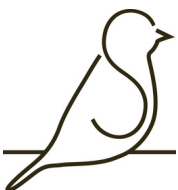

This service brings our families together and creates a powerful support network. It provides whole family group based activities throughout the year as well opportunities to access peer support via our Parent Peer Support Worker and regular groups.

For more information or to discuss referrals, contact:

Contact: ian.sheild@circle.scot mobile: 07564 054512

Sparrow

Sparrow is a partnership between Circle, Stepping Stones and City of Edinburgh council, offering support to birth parents who have had children permanently placed outwith their care. Outreach support is tailored to the needs of each family.

For more information or to discuss referrals, contact:

Contact: julie.king@circle.scot mobile: 07984 022908

